

THE BARK

Gordon Crowns a New KING in The Springs

It took many hours and lots of time for our well known principal, Mr. Gordon, to find the right fit for our newly opened assistant principal job. Assistant principal, Mr. Olejnik, had a major role in keeping this school in order, and it was going to take the right man for the job. Mr. Gordon didn't want just any ordinary principal to fill the big shoes of Mr. Olejnik's previous role. Mr. Gordon and his staff decided to expand his search into North Carolina in hope of finding a good fit, and he was in luck. He found the very experienced Mr. Larry King, who was previously the principal of Rutherfordton High School in Western North Carolina. Mr. King has quite the resume and is the perfect fit for this crucial job.

BULLDOG BUCKS ADDS PIZZAS

Bulldog Buck's coffee bar continues to take the new school by storm, consistently adding new menu items on a weekly basis. This week a very exciting new menu item became available at the shop: flatbread pizzas. The pizza is available in three options. These include cheese, pepperoni, and a supreme option featuring chicken, peppers, and onions. After sampling the pepperoni option personally, I was extremely impressed. On a 10- point scale, the pizza gets an 8.1 from me. The crust was toasted to perfection, nicely complemented by a melted array of cheese. Lastly, a mild tomato sauce wrapped all flavors together for a delightful dining experience. Be sure to check back to The Bark every addition for another review on a new Bulldog Buck's menu item!

The opening weeks of College Football has just finished and many of the dominating power five teams still remain at the top. Clemson holds the number one ranking in College AP polls followed by Alabama in second and Georgia in third. In week 2 of premier games featuring new faces, South Carolina quarterback Ryan Hilinski stole the show in SEC football with a phenomenal game while promoting his “Forever To Three” campaign in honor of his late brother, Tyler Hilinski. With the Heisman race starting to be projected, Jalen Hurts is at the top of the list in path to win the award. The 2020 College Football semifinal games are predicted to host the presence of Clemson, Alabama, Georgia, and Oklahoma. The season will wrap up to be very exciting but also holding you to the edge of your seat.

FRIDAY THE 13TH

Savannah Young

The superstition of the scariest day of the year, Friday the 13th, actually began in biblical times. The horror of the day and the number "13" in general actually stem greatly from Judas being the 13th person at Jesus' table. Friday, September 13, was an especially unique 13th because there was a harvest moon. The next time this happens won't be for another 30 years! For a month to contain the date, Friday the 13th, the month has to start on a Sunday. As a result of the superstitions of this date, most people believe that this day is universally seen as a day of misery, and is filled with unlucky events. While there is no proof to Friday the 13th actually causing bad luck or being scary, you should still be aware of Micheal Myers on this day!
