

Football Interview: CLAY CALDWELL

Even though it has been a rough season so far for the Bulldog Football team, senior Clay Caldwell still has his head held high and is determined to make the best of it. Clay is captain of the football team. He mentions goals are "to continue leading the team to the best of my ability and to finish the rest of the season strong." Clay plans on playing at the next level. He is excited about what is in store for him after high school. He said, "I look forward to a new chapter full of exciting things. I still want to play- but don't know where yet." Bulldogs look forward to finishing the season out strong.

Hurricane Dorian

Hurricane Dorian was the most powerful tropical cyclone that has hit Bahamas. The highest wind speeds were 183 miles per hour.

The total death toll of the hurricane was around 300. There were 54 direct fatalities and 6 indirect fatalities. The Bahamas were not the only people affected by the hurricane. Puerto Rico, East Coast of the United States and Atlantic Canada were also affected.

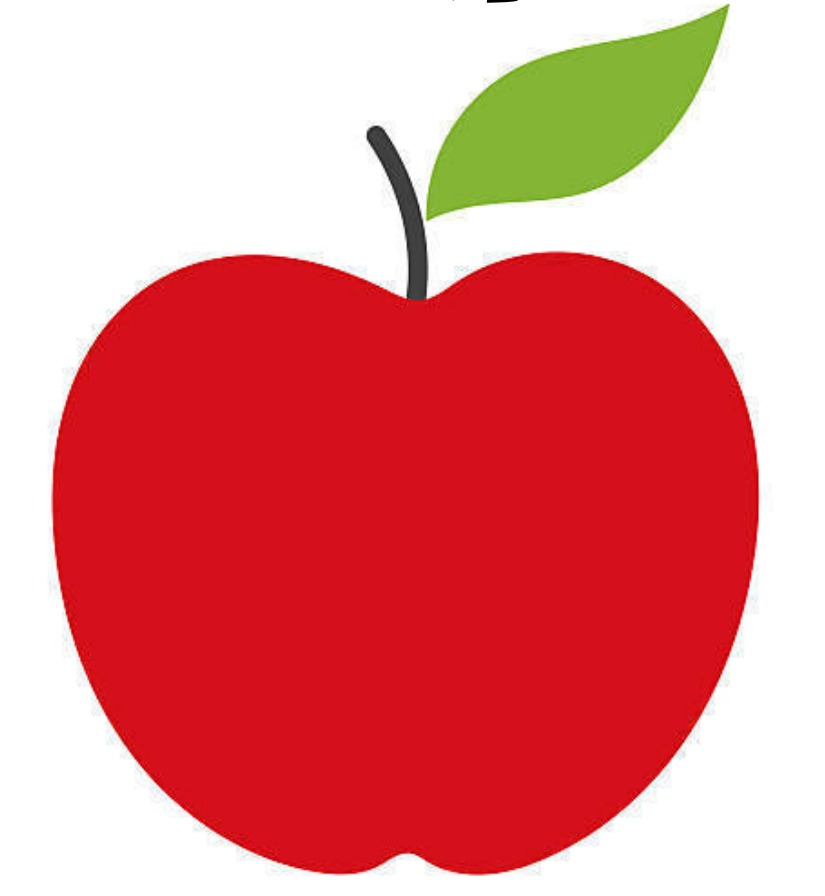

Apple iPhone 11

It is the time of the year for Apple to drop their new product. The Iphone 11 is the newest product that Apple has released. The phone features dual lens rear camera, ultra wide and wide lenses, night mode, and new colors. The pricing starts at $699. The phone is sold alongside the Iphone 11 pro at $999. The phone has a glass body like some of the other phones. The Iphone 11 is not much different than the Iphone XR but this product is special in its own way.

The 73rd Annual Apple Festival

North Carolina is the 7th largest apple-producing state in the nation, and Henderson County is the largest apple-producing county in North Carolina. The most widely-grown apples are Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Rome Beauty and Galas. In addition, many orchards grow a number of other varieties. The 73rd annual Apple Festival is held in Hendersonville, North Carolina every Labor Day weekend.

It starts on August 30th and ends on September 2nd. People from all around go to this festival and enjoy street fairs, arts and crafts, different foods that include apples, the King Apple parade, and so much more! The highlight of Labor Day is King Apple Parade filled with floats, bands, clowns, antique cars, fire engines and more traveling down Main Street. There is continuous music celebration that captures the spirit of this hometown celebration that is something the entire family can enjoy. This event, overall, encompasses the hearts of the family who started this celebration and continues to leave their legacy.

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT: MRS. PEDEN

There are a lot of new things about the high school that everyone loves. The classrooms are completely different than what we had at the old high school. Everything is cleaner and nicer too. I spoke to Mrs. Peden about how she likes her new classroom and here's what she had to say: "I love it. It's big and spacious. I love the view and the big windows. I like the smell of coffee from the coffee shop." All of the classrooms have beautiful views and lots of room to get work done. "

MEET THE 10

How do you like the school so far?

"It's good. I like playing sports and being at the new school."

- Cam Meadows

"I like being with the different grades."

- Amelia Gregg

"Good, it's nice. My classes are hard but I have good teachers to help me out."

- Mallory Vazquez

MEET THE 11

“What does Sept. 11, 2001 mean to you?”

“It is special to me because I think about all the victims that never knew it would be the last time they would ever see their families again.”

- Carson Robinson

“This event really hit home to me and my family. I had family living up there at the time, and it really affected them and their community. My family had close friends that were lost in the attacks.”

-Jackson Wideman

“It affected the United States in a negative way and many people in New York City, but this was a big event that lead to the killing of Osama Bin Laden, who was the mastermind behind many terrorist attacks.”

-Payne Clary

MEET THE 12

“The start of college football.”

-Davis Tapp

“The start of haunted houses.”

-Hayden Turner

“The start of deer season.”

-Harrison Ward
