By-Laws

Article 1

Dismissal and Probation

Section A. Every member of this chapter is expected to uphold the high standards for which he was inducted into the Society. Any member who fails to maintain the standards will be subject to dismissal. A member placed on probation for a semester thereby relinquishes his right to vote at called meetings. At the end of the semester, the member's status will be reviewed by the faculty advisers. If the member has displayed significant improvement, his active member status will be returned. If not, he will be dismissed.

Section B. If a member's cumulative GPA falls below the standard in effect when he/she was selected (at least a 4.4 on a weighted 5.0 scale), he/she will be given a written warning and a reasonable time period for improvement. If, after the warning period, the GPA is still below standard, the student will be subject to further disciplinary action by the Faculty Council.

Section C. Any member who is involved in violations of the law or school regulations can be immediately considered for dismissal. These violations include, but are not limited to stealing, cheating, lying, destruction of property, or possession, selling, or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol at school or school related activities or in the community.

Section D. Members violating the school conduct code (such as use of profanity, failure to comply, unexcused absences, excessive tardiness, etc.) will receive written warning notification. A conference may be requested by either party (Faculty Council or student/parent). If the member is involved in another violation of school conduct code, the member may be considered for dismissal.

Section E. In all cases pending dismissal:

A. The member will receive written notification from the adviser/Faculty Council indicating the reason for consideration of dismissal.

B. The member will be given the opportunity to respond to the charge(s) against him/her at a hearing before the Faculty Council prior to any vote on dismissal. The member has the opportunity to present his/her defense either in person or via a written statement in lieu of the face-to-face hearing. A majority vote of the Faculty Council is needed to dismiss any member.

C. The results of the Faculty Council vote must be presented to the principal for review, and then stated in a letter to the student and parents. Dismissed members must surrender any membership emblems to the adviser.

D. The Faculty Council's decision may be appealed to the building principal and afterwards according to provisions of the school district discipline policy.

E. A member who is dismissed or resigns may never again be considered for membership in the National Honor Society.

Section F. In lieu of dismissal, the Faculty Council may impose disciplinary sanction upon a member as deemed appropriate.

ARTICLE II

Attendance

Section A. Regular attendance at the prescribed meetings is expected of all members in this chapter.

Service

Section A. Members are expected to participate in an annual service project to be chosen by the executive committee with the approval of the principal. The annual project will fulfill a need within our school or community and will be completed during the school year.

ARTICLE IV

Dues

Section A. To insure the financial stability of this chapter and thereby produce a more effective organization, the Society will collect, from each member, dues totaling $20 per year. The dues will be payable to the faculty adviser within ten days of induction notice. Failure to pay dues will be interpreted the same as declining the membership invitation.
